

Brooks family fonds

<https://collections.cortesmuseum.com/en/permalink/descriptions14429>

Part Of:	Brooks family fonds
Description Level:	Fonds
Fonds Number:	2019.021
Item Number	2019.021.001 - .016
Range:
Accession Number:	2019.021
Material Type:	graphic material
Date Range:	1941-1956
Physical Description:	15 photographs : b&w 1 photograph : colour
History / Biographical:	Alethea and Frederick (Fred) James Brooks Sr. and their two sons, Frederick (Fred) Earl, Jr. and Bob, lived on Cortes Island from ca. 1941 to 1944, near Manson's Landing. Fred Sr. logged in Cortes Bay and employed two of the Hawkins boys, Bill and George. Fred Jr. attended grades three to six at Cortes Island school before the family moved to Pender Harbour. Some of the names he recalls are: the Christiansen kids (Robert, Jim, and a sister), the Tibers on the west side of Cortes Island, and the Jefferys of Smelt Bay.
Custodial History:	Fred Brooks Jr. gave the photographs to Cathy Brooks of Pender Harbour Living Heritage Society, who facilitated the donation by collecting the photographs, donation form and information from Brooks and sending the materials to CIMAS.
Scope and Content:	Fonds consists of sixteen photographs depicting people and scenes, primarily of the Manson's Landing area. Identification was provided by Fred Brooks Jr. in an interview with Cathy Jenks.
Storage Location:	Photo box 3
Name Access:	Brooks, Fred
Geographic Access:	Cortes Island Manson's Landing
Related Material:	Pender Harbour Living Heritage holds related material from the Brooks family: https://penderharbourheritage.pastperfectonline.com/bysearchterm?keyword=Brooks+family

Permalink